IN MEMORIAM

Our Classmate

HUGH A. "DUKIE" WATSON, JR.

New Bern, North Carolina

*"....Forgive me for one removed,
Thy creature, whom I found so fair.
I trust he lives in thee, and there I find him worthier to be loved...."*

Tennyson

Dedicated to . . .

Mr. JOHN M. MCSWEENEY, Director of The School of Graphic Arts. He has been a tireless worker, a sympathetic listener, and a wise counselor. To him has fallen the gigantic task of setting up and supervising the publications and printed materials for our school. His constant friendship and guidance, noble attitudes, and true ideals of Christian living have inspired us. His advice and assistance have played a major role in the presentation of this yearbook.

A black and white photograph of a young woman, Miss Bonnie Tinkham, sitting in a field of white flowers. She is wearing a strapless, light-colored dress with a full, ruffled skirt. She has short, dark hair with bangs and is smiling at the camera. The background is filled with dense white flowers and dark foliage. A white, cloud-like shape in the upper right corner contains the text "MAY QUEEN" and "Miss Bonnie Tinkham".

Clarence Nichols and George Nichols led Chowan Junior College to a 65-53 win over Newport News Saturday night, January 17. Nichols tossed in 20 points, while George Nichols added 17. The game was a close one, with Newport News leading for much of the first half. But Chowan came out strong in the second half, led by Nichols' scoring. The game was a real test for both teams, but Chowan
proved to be the stronger
team in the end.
